

MisterBill's British Open Pool 2026 Comments and Results

Ah yes, the final pool of the golf season is underway with 847 entries, one of which is subject to correction before tee time. Pool value is $16940. As long as there are no last minute withdrawals, all is well.

Enjoy the golf and root for your teams!

ROUND ONE

Daily winner status is shared by four teams: Kruz07, Kruz09, MOTOWN30, and ThunderUp19, all with a score of -9.

Mister Bill was lenient last night and let two more entries in that were sent by email before tee time, even though they technically missed the deadline. That brings the total count to 849, with a prize pool amount of $16980.

The battle to make the cut tomorrow should be an interesting one as a substantial number of prominent players are currently outside the number. We may establish new records for pool entries being lost after two rounds.

ROUND TWO

Daily winner is Rally03 @ -16.

Current leader is BallFore04 @ -16.

As expected, there was a heavy loss of entries after two rounds with only about a 34% survival rate. The biggest drama at the end of the day was whether Bryson Dechambeau would be given a two stroke penalty for an incident earlier in the round. He would have been in the final pairing on Saturday if he hadn't received it.

ROUND THREE

Daily winner is B&D06 @ -12.

Leaders are BCDG09, Buccos13, Hawk's Hackers10 and HOTRODS19 @ -20.

With four entries sharing the lead after three rounds and another 20 or so within three shots of that total, round four should be pretty wild. (Not for me, of course, as my entries are all in that wide abyss of mediocrity between the top and The CARLOS.) Oh well. There is always the daily, and next year.

ROUND FOUR

Daily winner is STONE01 @ -11

OVERALL WINNERS

1st/2nd tie Buccos15, Sully04 @ -20

3rd Lew's Legion 09 @ -19

4th-6th tie Fitz 'n' Chips 06, Kruz13, maklopp16 @ -18

7th-10th tie B&D06, Godfatherdv03, Grifdrew01, HOTRODS13, Jsary1, MacDaddy01, Sammy3 @ -17

THE CARLOS WIZZ-09 @ +16

I don't know if the top three finishers in the pool were aware but there was major drama when the final group played the 18th hole. Buccos15 and Lew's Legion 09 had Cameron Young while Sully04 had winner Ryan Fox. When Fox rolled in his birdie putt and avoided a playoff, Sully04 got one stroke better and tied for first overall rather than tied for 2nd overall. It's also interesting that longtime player Buccos got the win with his longstanding entry name. He had changed his entry name to Pittsburgh Pirate ballplayers in the other pools this year for luck but had changed back this time.
