

MisterBill's Masters Pool 2025 Comments and Results

Hurray! We are off to a fine start with our first Majors Pool of the season, logging in a record- breaking 1,018 entries for a prize pool of $20,360. This is our first time over a thousand entries. Thanks to everyone for doing a good job with the entries, with very few corrections required. There may be a few more entries coming in before tee time as at least one usual participant was having technical difficulties. Please review your entries and make sure all is correct.

Thursday morning update: we have added those "few more entries" and now stand at 1,040 for a prize pool of $20,800.

ROUND ONE:

Winner for the day is Shane14 @-15

ROUND TWO:

Winner(s) for the day are in a 7 way tie at -12

The usual prize for the daily is $300, however, due to administrative decisions last pool, each recipient in ties shall receive at least $100. We will appropriate these funds from the very healthy overall prize pool.

Leader of the pack remains Shane 14 @ -17.

The cut line proved merciless as usual, leaving only 322 active entries out of 1040.

We are sad to announce the death of one of our long time pool players, Jim Hansen, aka CARLOS. Read more at www.misterbill.org/JimHansen.pdf

ROUND THREE:

Winner for the day is KingPins01 @ -15

Leader of the pack has changed to Grifdrew04 @ -23

MisterBill declares today a "rotten day" as his remaining teams tried hard to slip into oblivion.

ROUND FOUR:

Winner(s) for the day are in a 7 way tie at -10. Oh no, Mr. Bill! Not another large split of the daily.

In honor of our dear departed participant CARLOS, we are renaming The Beatty to THE CARLOS. This is a prize for last place among the cutmakers.

Thanks to all for participating in our largest pool ever. We hope you all enjoyed the tournament, especially the ups and downs of scores on the last day.

Reminder - all tied entries for daily prizes and THE CARLOS are guaranteed at least $100 each even though the basic prize is designated as $300 for a single winner.
